Congratulations to our seniors!

Ethan Ding, Lucy Previn, and Davido Zhang

Ethan Ding

I'm a four-year senior originally from Canada, but a long-term resident of Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. Growing up in an environment without much of a classical music presence meant learning to play the violin was difficult, but making and sharing music was so special to me that I worked to ensure my violin would always be a constant in my life.

Through meeting people and cultures at Exeter, I've learned to think of music as a powerfully universal language—that even small artistic decisions I make can communicate surprisingly vivid images and feelings for people. I've had the good fortune to play with PEA's Chamber and Symphony Orchestras, the Boston Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, and now, for you. I'm very grateful to share this most recent chapter in my musical journey with you—I hope you'll enjoy it as much as I will.

Lucy Previn

I'm a 4-year senior from Westchester, New York and live in Merrill Hall on campus. I've been playing the violin since kindergarten and have played in Exeter's Chamber and Symphony Orchestra since my prep year (in addition to several chamber groups). I'm so grateful to have been a part of music here at Exeter and it has shaped my time here in more ways than I could have imagined. I enjoy history, going on runs, and iced coffee!

Davido Zhang

I'm a senior from Shenzhen, China. I live in Wentworth Hall. For the past eleven years of playing the cello, I've been actively involved in orchestras at school and in the local community. Playing music at Exeter was an incredible experience for me to meet some of my best friends, and that's the source of my passion. I'm also interested in math research, Artificial Intelligence, and Model UN. I hope you enjoy our music!
